In short, for the students enrolled both in the formal and the non-formal streams, the Post Graduation Program in History remains essentially the same.

Admission to the Program is from the merit list prepared through the combined entrance test conducted by the University at the start of the academic session. The last date for admission to the Program is decided by the University. Interactive session with the students to equip them for the forthcoming semester examination begins immediately thereafter. Keeping the interest, inclination and time availability of the students of the non-formal stream in mind (some of whom are working professional or are engaged in some other pursuit), academic counseling sessions are organized on Saturdays and Sundays.

In Post Graduation the academic horizon is considerably widened. For a deeper understanding of the subject the students are expected to go through area specific books, journals, articles, research monographs and even primary sources, for example in the lessons on Numismatics, Epigraphy or Archives.

However, concise subject specific learning material will be provided to the students enrolled in the School of Open Learning on a wide range of topics to help them prepare for the examination.
